DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable by Ito et al (US 6,489,732).

Regarding claim 1, Ito discloses a discharge lamp lighting device comprising a DC/DC converter (3) for boosting electric power given from DC source (2); an inverter (4) and an igniter (5), wherein said inverter (4) inverts the polarity of a sum of a negative voltage (Vd<sub>cn</sub>) boosted by the DC/DC converter (3) and positive voltage (Vd<sub>cp</sub>) given from the DC source (2) to generate an AC wave, and wherein the igniter (5) receives the AC wave and supplies a high voltage to the discharge lamp at the time of switching on the discharge lamp (6). See figure 1, col.2, lines 47-67 to col.8, lines 1-63.

Regarding claim 2, Ito discloses a voltage drop circuit (4 and Ri)) through which electric power of a positive voltage (Vdcp) is given from said DC source. See figures 1 and 2.

Regarding claim 3, Ito discloses said voltage drop circuit (4 and Ri) includes an inverter (4). See figures 1-2.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Okura (US 6,452,345) and Yamaguchi et al. (US 2003/0006706A1) are cited to show a lighting control system for a gas discharge lamp.
